(Incidentally, Sunday 25th January is the Feast of St. Dwynwen, a Welsh equivalent of Valentine's Day. The folktale is that Dwynwen was a Welsh princess with whom a young man named Maelon fell in love. Dwynwen rejected him because her father had already promised her to another and she prayed that he would fall out of love with her. An angel appeared and presented Maelon with a potion which turned him to ice. Dwynwen then prayed that Maelon would be restored, that God would protect all true lovers through her intercession, and that she herself would remain unmarried. She eventually became a hermitess on a tidal islet called Ynys Llanddwyn off the coast of Anglesey. An interesting tale, but not one worth going to the stake for...)

Second Collection – This weekend we are required to hold a Second Collection for the Cathedral of St John in Portsmouth. A message from Canon James McAuley: Our cathedral is situated in the most deprived part of the Diocese of Portsmouth. The parish collection covers just over half of the ordinary running costs of £5,000 per week. I fully appreciate the financial pressures we are all experiencing, but I would appeal to you to support the Second Collection for the Cathedral on 25 January. Never has this annual collection by parishes for the Mother Church of the Diocese been more critical or needed. Your support is vitally important to us. Thank you. For more information about how you can also support the Cathedral150 Appeal, please follow this link: <https://portsmouthdiocese.org.uk/cathedral150-appeal/>. Online donations for the Second Collection can be made at the following link: <https://donate.giveasyoulike.com/campaign/st-johns-cathedral-second-collection-2026> or by the contactless card payment machine in the church porch or by scanning the QR code below with a Smart Phone

Plate Collection – for last Sunday: £694.33 (plus £324.08 for Crib Offerings) - Standing Orders: £575 - Digital Giving collection: £139.62. Thank you for your generosity. If anyone wishes to donate by cheque to the parish, cheques should be made payable to CDP Crowthorne HG & Sandhurst IC.
